Ledyard National Bank Promotes Cara Dyke

Hanover, NH: Ledyard National Bank is pleased to announce that Cara Dyke has been promoted to Banking Office Manager of the Lyme branch.

Cara has over eleven years of retail banking experience. She began her career at Ledyard in 1999 as a teller in the bank's Norwich, Vermont branch. She further developed her banking knowledge and skill set in our Lyme, New Hampshire branch from 2001 to 2002. Soon thereafter, Cara was promoted into a leadership position at our Lebanon, New Hampshire branch, including Branch Supervisor as well as Personal Banking Officer/Assistant Manager.

Chris Taylor, Senior Vice President and Chief Retail Banking Officer, said, "We are thrilled that Cara will be taking over the Lyme Banking Office considering her experience and many connections to that community."

During Cara's eleven years in the financial services industry, she has completed numerous banking, professional management, and information technology courses.
