

LEDYARD CELEBRATES THEIR CONCORD EXPANSION WITH RIBBON-CUTTING CEREMONY AND OPEN HOUSE

May 16, 2017

Hanover, NH: Ledyard National Bank celebrated their expansion into the Concord, New Hampshire, region with a ribbon-cutting ceremony and open house on Tuesday, May 16, at their new location at 1 Pillsbury Street, Suite 303, in Concord. The ceremony was attended by Concord Mayor Jim Bouley, Concord Chamber of Commerce President Timothy Sink, and New Hampshire's Banking Commissioner Jerry Little who read aloud from a letter written to Ledyard from Governor Chris Sununu.

Ledyard National Bank, headquartered in Hanover, New Hampshire, has served the Upper Valley and Lake Sunapee Region for the last 26 years with seven retail banking locations; expanding into the Concord market with their wealth management division late last year. In the near future, Ledyard plans to add to their Concord team with Private Banking and Commercial and Consumer Lending. Committed to serving New Hampshire and Vermont, Ledyard is honored to remain the local bank of choice for so many New Englanders. Ledyard prides itself on providing the capital and the support necessary to help communities thrive, on their ability to make decisions locally from which a new company can begin or an existing business can grow, and on helping to cultivate financial stability as they advise their clients from childhood through retirement.

Ledyard's wealth management group, Ledyard Financial Advisors, was established in 1994 and was designed to provide integrated investment, tax and wealth management services to individuals, families and institutions. Today, with over $1.3 billion dollars in assets under management, headquartered in Hanover, New Hampshire, it serves clients in 37 states and 7 foreign countries.

Diane DeStefano, Diane Mullin, Karen Crump, Jeffrey Trombly, Monique Brown and Kathy Croatti, currently make up Ledyard's Concord team with a combined 137 years of experience in investments, financial planning, portfolio management, retirement planning and gifting.
